ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR FEDERAL TITLE IV AID

In general, an applicant is eligible for Federal Title IV financial assistance if the requirements listed below are met. There is a limit to the amount of Federal loans you may be eligible for. The applicant must:

- be a U.S. citizen or eligible non-citizen
- have a high school diploma or GED
- have truthfully completed a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA)
- demonstrate financial need for need-based federal student aid programs;
- be enrolled as a regular student in an eligible program
- have a valid Social Security number (with the exception of students from the Republic of the Marshall Islands, Federated States of Micronesia, or the Republic of Palau)
- maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP) throughout your program
- provide consent and approval to have your federal tax information transferred directly into your 2024–25 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA®) form, if you're applying for aid for July 1, 2024, to June 30, 2025
- sign the certification statement on the FAFSA form stating that you're not in default on a federal student loan, you do not owe money on a federal student grant, and you'll only use federal student aid for educational purposes; and
- IMPORTANT: On the 2024–25 FAFSA form, a contributor refers to anyone (you, your spouse, your biological or adoptive parent, or your parent's spouse) who's required to provide information on the FAFSA form. If a required contributor doesn't provide consent and approval to have their federal tax information transferred into your FAFSA form, you won't be eligible for federal student aid—even if they manually enter tax information into the FAFSA form.
